JUDGMENT:(Per Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Sudershan Reddy)

We are not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the learned single

Judge as it does not suffer from any legal infirmities.

Sri T. Bal Reddy, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants, however invited our attention to the averments made in the counter affidavit filed by the 1st respondent-Government in which it is inter alia stated that "the representation of the petitioners is under examination by the Government. A report has been called for from the Collector, Guntur, and the same is awaited". It is for the Government to take an appropriate decision on the representation stated to have been made by the appellants/petitioners.

With the observations as above, the Writ Appeal shall stand dismissed without any order as to costs.
